NEWS BY TELEGRAPH.

THE LATEST FROM WASHINGTON.

Mr. Marcy and the San Juan Affair.

MR. BORDLAND'S ARMY AT NIAGARA.

Interesting to Texan Creditors.

TERRIBLE STORM AT CHARLESTON.

From Washington.

THE TEXAS DEBT BILL—THE HOMESTEAD BILL—THE CANADIAN TREATY.

WASHINGTON, July 30, 1854.

It is reported that Marcy on Saturday was very explicit in his declaration to his friends in Congress, that none of the responsibility of the instructions to Capt. Hollins rested on him. It is however reported with equal positiveness on the other hand, that so far from objecting to them in cabinet council, he directly approved of them.

A serious case has leaked out as to Mr. Solon Borland while at San Juan. It is asserted that he organized a military force to maintain the honor of the United States, concentrated in his person, as well as for his self-protection, and paid them about $12,000, for which he drew on the government, but the draft has not yet been paid. Probably this amount is included in the $25,000 demanded by Capt. Hollins of the citizens of San Juan.

The Texas Debt Bill will probably be postponed till next session. Members generally complain they have not been able to look into its merits and cannot vote understandingly. It may, however, pass.

The Homestead Bill will be pressed to a vote; and if so, will carry.

The Reciprocity treaty is in a bad way—but four days of the session left, and no progress made.

From the South.

FROM CHARLESTON—YERSEL STRUCK BY LIGHTNING.

BALTIMORE, July 30, 1854.

The Southern mail has arrived, and brings us New Orleans papers up to Monday last.

We learn that there was a severe storm at Charleston on Thursday, which did considerable damage. The bark Lament was struck by lightning and the mainmast shattered.

The American bark Quinebeck, which sailed from Charleston in March last for Nantes, is supposed to be lost—no tidings of her having been received.

The Richmond Register contains the report that an expedition of the Virginia Legislature is to be called.

Several vessels of the French squadron are expected at Norfolk shortly, to obtain supplies.

Collision on Lake Ontario.

ROCHESTER, July 30, 1854.

The propeller Boston, Captain McNett, was run into by a schooner, on Friday night last, off Oak Orchard, and sunk. She went down in fifteen minutes after being struck. The propeller had a full cargo of flour, pork, wheat and corn, and was owned by the Ogdensburg Railroad Company.

The passengers and crew, twenty-five in number, arrived on the morning of the 30th inst. The schooner was returning from a funeral, while passing the propeller, when it was struck.

There were three heavy explosions, which shook the city much. The mill is totally destroyed. The property about the mill is not much damaged.

Death of an Editor.

HARTFORD, July 30, 1854.

Mr. John I. Bowdell, one of the editors of the Courant, died this afternoon, after a few days' illness, of erysipelas.

Movements of Steamships.

ARRIVAL OF THE SOUTHERNER.

CHICAGO, July 30, 1854.

The steamship Southerner is now coming up—ten o'clock A. M.

ARRIVAL OF THE KNOXVILLE.

SAVANNAH, July 29, 1854.

The Knoxville arrived at her wharf to-day, in fifty-eight hours from New York.

Markets.

NEW ORLEANS, July 27, 1854.

Cotton.—The Pacific news has depressed the market. The sales yesterday were 2,500 bales. Flour is dull at $6 75. Bacon is firm, and we quote at 20 cts. for 10 lbs. Ohio whiskey at 25 cts.

NEW ORLEANS, July 28, 1854.

Our cotton market is very dull. The sales of the past two days have been 1,000 bales, and the business of the week for all cotton is 5,000 bales. The stock on hand is 70,000 bales. Sugar has advanced 1/4 cts. Flour is dull at $6 75. Sales of corn at 50 cts. with a heavy market. Rice is firm at 11 25 to 11 50.

COTTON DOLLAR—PRICE UNCHANGED. Wool.—The market is dull, and entirely bare of pulled. Sales, 51,700 pounds. Printing cloth.—The market closes with more activity than of late. Prices are 10 to 12 cts. in the last three days. Sales of the week—54,000 pieces.

Williamsburg Intelligence.

BRIDGE PRINCIPAL.—Street preaching came off as usual yesterday afternoon at the junction of North and South streets. About five hundred persons were present, and the meeting was as quiet as usual. A New York hack driver, named Cornelius Fullerton, who was returning from a funeral, while passing the meeting, jumped up and commenced shouting quite loud, evidently to disturb the meeting. A rush was made for him by the deputies, and he was driven off. He was pulled off his horse and handled roughly. He was locked up. Another person was arrested for using language likely to create a disturbance. The speakers were Mr. Wood and Mr. Mrs. Wilford, of New York. At street preaching has been sustained in Williamsburg, it is to be hoped there will be no more of it at present.

Smugglers Detained.—About four o'clock yesterday morning a party of five criminals, who had been on a carousel during the night, got into a fight at a porter house in the second ward, and all were more or less injured. A man named Murphy, residing in Tenth street, near North street, was killed in the abdomen and sustained a rupture, which is feared will cause his death.

Found Dead.—On Saturday morning the body of a little boy, ten years of age, son of G. B. Schoonmaker, residing in Second street, was found floating in Newtown creek, near the East River. He had been missing since Wednesday last.

THE TAKES.—The sum of $149,554 41 is to be raised by tax, for city expenses, the present year. This is an increase over the appropriations of last year of about $50,000.

SELLING POLICEMEN.—Margaret Allen and Mrs. Wedderburn, residing in North First street, near Fourth street, were arrested on Saturday on a charge of selling lottery tickets. They were held for examination.

DRUNKEN MEN.—A German butcher named John Fohman, doing business in the Third ward, was arrested and brought before Justice Bowdell on Saturday, by officer Smith, for refusing to pay for a dog meat.

THE SUM OF $15,000 HAS BEEN APPOINTED BY THE BOARD OF ALIENS FOR THE BUILDING OF AN ARMY IN THIS CITY FOR THE MILITARY.

MR. J. W. BURRILL COMMENCED THE DUTIES OF COLLECTOR OF TAXES AND ASSESSMENTS ON SATURDAY. THE COMMON COUNCIL HAVING APPROVED OF BONDS OFFERED OF $20,000.

DUNQUEN WAS ONE OF THE CHAIN OF POSTS ESTABLISHED BY THE FRENCH, CONNECTING QUEBEC, THE LAKES, THE MISSISSIPPI AND NEW ORLEANS. JULIEN DUNQUEN, the founder, died in 1810; the city is therefore one of the oldest in the West. It numbered 181,870, when its mineral resources became fully developed, and the town was about with steady prosperity to 1833, when its taxable property amounted to nearly $4,000,000. In 1853 it was $6,000,000, and this year it will reach eight millions of dollars. The population is between eight and nine thousand, and some idea of its mineral resources may be collected from this fact.
